EPISODE 4: DEALMAKING IN A DYNAMIC M&A MARKET

In this episode, we explore the evolving world of M&A in 2025 – a year already marked by geopolitical uncertainty, regulatory complexity, and shifting investor sentiment. We hear from BCLP's Todd Kaye and Jinal Shah who bring their global perspectives to the table and offer a candid look at the forces shaping global M&A activity across markets and sectors.

KEY THEMES

- Why deal processes are slower and more complex
- How regulation and politics are reshaping M&A strategy
- The sectors seeing the most activity – and those facing headwinds
- The growing importance of interdisciplinary advisory teams
- Our outlook for M&A in H2 2025

Hosted by award-winning international journalist Nadira Tudor and produced by FT Studio, the episode unpacks the regulatory, geopolitical, and sector-specific forces shaping dealmaking today.
