BIOGRAPHY

Jermeha Williams is an Associate in the firm's Energy, Environment & Infrastructure Practice Group. Her practice focuses on regulatory compliance, environmental litigation, and infrastructure-related legal matters. She first joined the firm as a Summer Associate in both 2023 and 2024.

Jermeha earned her J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law, where she was actively involved in student organizations. She served as Managing Editor of the ABA Journal of Labor & Employment Law and held leadership roles in several groups, including the Black Law Students Association, Women Law Students' Association, and the Student Bar Association. Furthermore, Jermeha gained hands-on experience as a Student Attorney in both the Criminal Defense Clinic and the Children's Permanency Clinic.

Prior to law school, Jermeha received her B.A. in Criminal Justice & Criminology from the University of Missouri–Kansas City, graduating magna cum laude. Prior to law school, she previously worked as a Medical/Legal Sexual Assault Advocate at a non-profit organization in Chicago, providing crisis intervention and legal support to survivors of sexual assault.
