GEORGE CHEN SHARES INSIGHT INTO ASAP! WITH S&P GLOBAL

Nov 19, 2025

George Chen, a partner in our Intellectual Property practice, recently spoke with S&P Global about the US Patent and Trademark Office's new AI-powered pilot program that is sparking debate among Intellectual Property professionals.

In the article, George highlights concerns about undisclosed AI training data and its potential impact on patent confidentiality and litigation strategy with the Artificial Intelligence Search Automated Pilot (ASAP!). His perspective underscores BCLP's commitment to guiding clients through the evolving intersection of intellectual property law and artificial intelligence (AI) technologies.

Read the full article here to explore George's insights and what this means for innovation and confidentiality in patent workflows.
