BANKING AND FINANCE PARTNER JOINS BCLP IN FRANKFURT

Jan 05, 2026

International law firm BCLP announces today that Dr. Dietrich F. R. Stiller will join the firm as a partner in the Frankfurt office. With extensive experience in banking and finance law and cross-border investments, Dietrich will strengthen the firm's finance practice as well as client offering in Germany.

Dietrich brings decades of experience advising on complex financing transactions. His work covers a broad spectrum across corporate and project finance to export and crisis-related funding. He has supported numerous infrastructure projects in sectors such as energy, transport, telecommunication and industrial facilities. Many of these projects are transnational and are backed by federal guarantees, export credit agencies (ECAs), and multilateral institutions.

Another key focus of his work is advising on international investments, particularly in mitigating political risks. Legal advice in relationship to international projects furthermore includes the prevention of events of loss, or the mitigation of events of loss as well as legal support in case of actual or imminent expropriations, including legal advice in related arbitration proceedings.

Dr. Dietrich Stiller, Partner, commented, "I look forward to contributing my experience to BCLP's international platform and working with the team on sophisticated financing projects."

Mike Danielewsky, Partner who leads Corporate & Finance Transactions Practice Group in Germany, commented: "Dr. Stiller brings exceptional technical depth and a strong international profile. His experience is a valuable addition to our practice and opens new opportunities for our clients."

Carsten Bremer, Office Managing Partner Germany, added, "Dr. Stiller is not only a highly skilled lawyer but will also be a strategic contributor to the continued growth of our finance practice in Germany."
