CHRISTIAN BROMLEY RE-ELECTED TO ATLANTA BAR ASSOCIATION LITIGATION SECTION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

May 12, 2026

BCLP Partner and Environmental & Toxic Tort Practice Co-Leader Christian Bromley has been elected to serve a fourth term on the Atlanta Bar Association Litigation Section Board of Directors for the 2026-2027 bar year. Christian, together with his fellow board members and the Section's officers, will help lead the Litigation Section to continue promoting professional development, fostering relationships, and engaging in further community service and outreach.

The Litigation Section is the Atlanta Bar Association's largest section by membership with litigators across numerous practices, including both plaintiff and defense lawyers, mediators and dispute resolution practitioners, as well as judges across several state and federal courts. The Litigation Section was named Large Section of the Year for the 2025-2026 bar year under the leadership of Christian, his fellow board members, and the Section officers.

Christian is a litigator focused on complex commercial disputes, mass tort, and class action litigation involving corporate transactions, insurance, financial services, environmental claims, and a variety of consumer disputes. He is a resident in the firm's Atlanta and Los Angeles offices. Christian regularly represents clients before courts and arbitral tribunals around the country with a particular focus in California, Florida, and Georgia.
