CHRISTINE GRAHAM JOINS AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION'S PANEL ON NATIONAL SECURITY, ANTITRUST AND TRADE LAW

May 29, 2026

SUMMARY

BCLP Partner, Christine Graham, recently participated in the international webinar “National Security, Antitrust and Trade Law”, hosted by the American Bar Association’s Antitrust Foreign Investment and National Security Committee on 28 May 2026.

Christine shared her perspectives on the UK and EU regulatory landscape, contributing to a broader discussion on the increasing intersection of national security reviews with antitrust/competition and trade law regimes. The panel also explored the growing importance of economic security considerations, now formally embedded in processes such as CFIUS reviews in the US and under the Investment Canada Act, and increasingly relevant in UK and EU foreign direct investment (FDI) frameworks.

This was a timely and important topic for lawyers advising clients on cross-border transactions within an increasingly complex and evolving regulatory environment.

If you have any questions on these topics, please contact Christine Graham.
