BCLP WINS THOMSON REUTERS LEGAL TECH EXCELLENCE AWARD

Jun 22, 2026

BCLP is proud to announce that the firm has won the inaugural Thomson Reuters Legal Tech Excellence award.

Awarded to the Research Information and Intelligence team (RII), Thomson Reuters praised the RII team’s implementation and delivery of the “Research Hub”, BCLP’s global research enquiry platform which connects the firm’s 31 offices, as well as their efforts evaluating what the quickly evolving legal tech landscape means for legal and business research.

The Thomson Reuters Legal Tech Excellence Award recognises those who not only champion emerging legal technology but also thoughtfully navigate its ethical, practical, and strategic dimensions.

Thomson Reuters stated: “the RII team exemplifies exactly what this award stands for, such as innovation and leadership in legal technology, measurable impact within their organisation, and a genuine commitment to advancing the legal information profession as a whole.”
