EMORY UNIVERSITY NAMES CHRISTIAN BROMLEY AS 40 UNDER FORTY ALUMNUS

Nov 13, 2026

Christian Bromley, BCLP Partner and Environmental & Toxic Tort Practice Co-Leader, has been recognized in Emory University's 2026 "40 under Forty" alumni class.

Christian was honored among a select group of remarkable young alumni that includes innovators, researchers, advocates, educators, entrepreneurs, artists, health care leaders and public servants who exemplify excellence, service, and leadership.

Christian represents clients across the Southeast and California, co-leads BCLP's PFAS Team, serves as co-hiring partner for Atlanta and co-chair of the firm's LGBTQ+ Network, and is a member of the firm's Global Inclusion & Diversity Action Board. Over the past decade, he has devoted more than 2,000 hours to pro bono service, including work with the American Bar Association's Death Penalty Representation Project. Christian also is a member of the Leadership Atlanta Class of 2026, has held multiple leadership roles within the Atlanta Bar Association, and recently joined the board of directors for March of Dimes in Georgia.
