BCLP NAMED TO THE 2026 GIR 100

Nov 23, 2026

Global Investigations Review has named international law firm BCLP to the 2026 GIR 100, its annual guide to the world's leading investigations practices.

The recognition highlights BCLP's work advising clients on complex internal and government-led investigations, regulatory enforcement and related cross-border matters. BCLP's profile highlights the firm's Financial Services Disputes and Investigations practice, including Practice Group Leaders Polly James and Christine Cesare and Partners Oran Gelb, David Rundle, Rhys Corbett, Segun Osuntokun, Lindsay Aggarwal, Saurish Appleby-Bhattacharjee, Emmet Ong and Justin Benson.

The GIR 100 is a curated list of firms that can handle sophisticated matters with confidence and expertise. It aims to serve as a global benchmark for excellence in investigations, helping clients, practitioners, and observers understand which firms are best equipped to navigate the legal, regulatory and reputational challenges of a corporate investigation.
