BIOGRAPHY

Joe Robertson is a transactional real estate and finance lawyer and strategic partner to his clients. When it comes to their corporate real estate needs, clients count on Joe's comprehensive spectrum of precision advice, particularly in connection with commercial real estate acquisitions and dispositions, financing transactions related to commercial real estate deals, large corporate acquisitions, and other borrower and lender-side financing transactions. With a keen ability to think ahead and anticipate potential challenges, Joe focuses on partnering with his clients early on in a transaction to structure and deliver the most efficient options to accomplish their goals.

Prior to joining the firm, Joe was an associate in the New York office of an international firm where he advised financial and corporate clients on a broad range of commercial real estate and financing transactions.
