BIOGRAPHY

Edward Peck concentrates his practice in estate planning, estate administration and Surrogate's Court matters. Mr. Peck advises clients in structuring estate plans, drafting wills, revocable trusts, all types of irrevocable trusts, including insurance, residence and charitable trusts, and retirement beneficiary designation forms. He also provides clients with legal and tax advice in connection with probate, filing of fiduciary estate and income tax returns, estate tax audits and fiduciary accountings. He is active in estate and tax planning for high net worth individuals, corporate executives, closely held business owners and artists. Mr. Peck's practice also includes international tax planning for non-U.S. individuals. With the preparation of complex wills and trusts, Mr. Peck serves as counsel, executor, and/or trustee to effectuate the plan. Another focus of his practice includes Surrogate's Court litigation involving will and trust controversies and disputes against descendants' estates.
