BCLP's Boulder office was established in 1984 to better serve regional clients in Boulder and northern Colorado. Since our Boulder office seamlessly operates as part of a team of globally connected lawyers, we also regularly advise clients with interests across Colorado, the country and around the world.

We serve clients in a variety of business sectors and industries as well as across diverse practice areas, including early stage and emerging companies issues, venture capital and private equity, investment fund formation, intellectual property protection and litigation, data privacy and security, licensing and technology transactions, affordable housing, media, white collar and securities litigation, commercial real estate, financial services and tax.

COMMUNITY

The office's lawyers enjoy being an integral part of our community and are actively engaged with numerous local organizations, including the Boulder Economic Council, TechStars, Mergelane, Silicon Flatirons Center for Technology and Entrepreneurship, The Community Foundation Serving Boulder County, Active Boulder, Legal Aid Foundation, Davis Phinney Foundation and Cyclists 4 Community.

PFAS in Consumer Products: State-by-State Regulations

Manufacturers, distributors, and retailers of consumer products across a broad spectrum of industries are being impacted by state laws regulating the presence of per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (“PFAS”) in their products. This area is rapidly developing as states create new laws or amend existing ones, and the penalties and litigation risks for non-compliance can be significant.

Department of Education's New Proposed Rule for Transgender Participation in Athletics

The participation of transgender athletes in youth, interscholastic, and elite sport has long been a highly charged political issue domestically and internationally, with a vast range of different approaches to regulating participation. Last week's combination of Supreme Court orders, state legislation, and a proposed rulemaking from the Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights ("OCR") confirm that this must remain a focal point for educational institutions intending to continue offering athletics participation opportunities.
