Mar 02, 2018

When expanding across borders, retailers may unknowingly be considered a franchisor under dozens of statutes worldwide and be surprised by the regulations and restrictions with which they must comply. Bryan Cave's industry-leading franchise attorneys Nicole Simonian, Kenneth Costello and Jonathan Solish delivered a discussion on how to mitigate the risks associated with international franchising. Key topics included how to determine what constitutes a franchise under applicable country law, best practices for structuring agreements, and tips for managing ancillary issues and avoiding litigation.
