BIOGRAPHY

Kate Brimsted is the UK Data Privacy and Security Lead and advises clients on all aspects of law associated with “data” in particular the UK GDPR and EU GDPR. Cyber security and personal data breaches are also part of her practice.

Over some 20 years in the field, Kate has built a reputation as a “go to” person for strategic and pragmatic data privacy advice on complex projects and issues in a range of sectors including technology, financial services, manufacturing and energy. Her consistent aim is to focus on the issues that really matter for her clients and to work collaboratively with them to arrive at clear and practical solutions.

Kate is recognized as a Leading Individual for Data Protection & Information Law by Chambers UK and the Legal 500. She has also been named by Best Lawyers (UK) for Privacy and Data Protection Law, and by Best of the Best (Global). Who's Who Legal also named her as a Global Leader for Data Privacy.

Lessons from the growth of FemTech and women's health

BCLP's Healthcare & Life Sciences Practice Group recently partnered with EMIG Digital Health Group to co-host an in-person breakfast seminar and networking event focused on FemTech. Specialists from across the FemTech and wider digital health, pharma and life sciences sectors heard speakers from Flo Health, Apricity and Theramex, amongst others, discuss key themes and lessons learnt from the growth of FemTech. Chaired by Darren Spevick, Managing Director of Russell Strategy Partners, topics discussed included the ecosystem and market and how innovation, effective partnerships, high quality content, and a simple and tangible digital strategy can drive growth in the sector. Attendees also heard from members of BCLP's dedicated FemTech team about the current themes in, and the direction of travel for, UK and EU privacy and data protection and how robust compliance can help to fuel trust a...

Privacy Speaks: A clearer view?

Clearview AI Inc's successful challenge to the ICO's £7.5 million fine focused on the limits of the UK GDPR's jurisdictional reach, succeeding on the grounds that Clearview's processing activities were outside the scope of the UK GDPR. At the time of writing, we await confirmation of whether the ICO will be allowed to appeal. In the meantime, the decisions have provided some interesting clarifications around the application of data protection law to publicly accessible images. This comes at a time when the ICO is consulting on the application of UK data protection law to generative AI (including obtaining training data) and the UK government has dropped plans for a broad exception to current UK copyright rules, which would have permitted text and data mining of copyright protected works for AI training purposes.

EDPB explains EU ePrivacy cookie rules apply to emerging online tracking tools

On 14 November 2023, the European Data Protection Board (EDPB) adopted guidelines on the technical scope of Article 5(3) of the ePrivacy Directive (Directive 2002/58/EC, as amended) (ePD). This reflects the EDPB's intent to ensure that privacy laws keep pace with the rapidly evolving digital environment and helps fill a lacuna left by the stalled draft EU ePrivacy Regulation, intended to reform and update the ePD. The guidelines also anticipate an acceleration in new online tracking techniques being developed to address the withdrawal of support for third party cookies, which are at the core of the current AdTech ecosystem.

Understanding the Data Governance Act: key aspects and challenges

A few weeks ago, on 24 September 2023, the Data Governance Act (Regulation (EU) 2022/868 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 30 May 2022 on European data governance) ("DGA") came into force. The DGA aims to bolster the data economy by encouraging public sector bodies to share certain categories of protected data (e.g., personal data and commercially confidential data) and promote data altruism. We set out below an overview of the key aspects of the DGA.
