Lessons from the growth of FemTech and women's health

BCLP's Healthcare & Life Sciences Practice Group recently partnered with EMIG Digital Health Group to co-host an in-person breakfast seminar and networking event focused on FemTech. Specialists from across the FemTech and wider digital health, pharma and life sciences sectors heard speakers from Flo Health, Apricity and Theramex, amongst others, discuss key themes and lessons learnt from the growth of FemTech. Chaired by Darren Spevick, Managing Director of Russell Strategy Partners, topics discussed included the ecosystem and market and how innovation, effective partnerships, high quality content, and a simple and tangible digital strategy can drive growth in the sector. Attendees also heard from members of BCLP's dedicated FemTech team about the current themes in, and the direction of travel for, UK and EU privacy and data protection and how robust compliance can help to fuel trust a...
