OVERVIEW

Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner is a leader in naming rights and sponsorship transactions, representing both sports and entertainment properties and corporate sponsors.

NAMING RIGHTS

With naming rights representations with an aggregate value of over $5.25 billion and significant experience on both the sports and entertainment property and the sponsor side, we are among the most active law firms in the world in advising with respect to naming rights transactions. We have been at the table for a number of the largest naming rights deals in history, including some of the largest known naming rights deals on each side of the Atlantic in the 20 year naming rights agreement for SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles, the $400 million naming rights agreement for Citi Field in New York and the 15 year agreement to rename the London Millennium Dome to The O2, as well as the naming rights deal for the Dolby Theatre, home of the Academy Awards, as well as various restructurings of significant naming rights agreements (including to address the impact of COVID-19).

SPONSORSHIPS

Recognized as one of the leading sports sponsorship practices, we have significant experience on both the sports and entertainment property and the sponsor side, having negotiated significant sponsorships of Olympic events, professional sports teams, athletes and events (including jersey sponsorship, betting and gaming industry sponsorship and cryptocurrency category sponsorship transactions).
