

BCLP DATA BREACH HOTLINE

OVERVIEW

Hackers don't stop working at 5:00... and neither do we.

Data breaches can and do occur at any time, day or night.

When a security breach occurs, preventing liability often means analyzing facts, identifying legal obligations, and taking steps to prevent or mitigate harm within the first minutes and hours of becoming aware of a breach.

That's why a lawyer from our global Data Privacy and Security Practice is on-call for clients whenever and wherever a breach occurs: 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Call an attorney on one of the following numbers:

Information Commissioner's open letter to the UK Prime Minister - Key Takeaways

On 16 January 2025, in an open statement and letter, the UK Information Commissioner, John Edwards, responded to the December 2024 letter from the UK Prime Minister, the Chancellor, and the Business Secretary. He set out the ICO25 strategic plan and highlighted a few interesting points. The plan confirms that responsible innovation and sustainable economic growth are core strategic objectives for the data protection regulator. Additionally, the importance of data protection and information rights are noted as essential building blocks for the ICO's strategic plans, as they ensure public trust and consumer confidence alongside offering businesses security and certainty upon which to build for the future.

EMEA- Data Privacy, Digital and AI Round Up 2024/2025

As expected in the data privacy and digital space, 2024 shaped up to be a year full of guidance, consultations, regulatory focus areas and legislative updates. Artificial Intelligence (AI) remained a hot topic with advertising technology (AdTech) closely following its heels. With the blizzard of global data protection developments continuing unabated in 2024 with no doubt more to come in 2025, it is a good moment to look back at what 2024 held for businesses as well as to consider what 2025 may hold in the EMEA region.

Out with the old and in with the new- The Data (Use and Access) Bill

On 23 October 2024, the Data (Use and Access) Bill (the "DUAB") was introduced to Parliament. The DUAB is the Labour government's answer to the perceived shortfalls of the since-abandoned Data Protection and Digital Information Bill (the "DPDI" Bill). We unpack below the elements from the DPDI Bill that were abandoned, those retained, and the newly added ones introduced by the DUAB.
