

ACCESSIBILITY

We know that having a website that is accessible for everyone is incredibly important.

Therefore we are committed to adhering to appropriate accessibility standards and guidelines, and to delivering a great website experience to the widest possible audience.

STANDARDS COMPLIANCE

Our aim is for bclplaw.com to be compliant with level 'A' of the W3C Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.0, and we have set a target of being fully AA compliant.

In addition, BCLP UK will continuously work towards satisfying as many aspects of level 'AAA' compliance as practicable.

BCLP UK's website content is changed frequently by several members of our team. We will provide training and regular updates to all website editors within blplaw.com to minimise possible issues. We are committed to completing a full accessibility audit of blplaw.com at least annually, with a target of quarterly.

We want to make our website as accessible and usable as possible, so if you experience any difficulties while visiting our website, please email us.
