BIOGRAPHY

Jeanne Miller practices in the firm's private client services area with a concentration on estate planning and estate/trust administration, transfer tax planning and business succession planning for high-net worth families. Over the years, she has focused on counseling families on the preservation and transfer of wealth to multiple generations in a tax efficient manner using sophisticated tax planning techniques. She works closely with the families' other advisors and family offices. Ms. Miller has represented numerous families in disputes with the Internal Revenue Service on estate tax matters.
