

WE INVITE YOU TO BUILD THE FUTURE OF OUR FIRM

You bring the drive, skill and focus to support our clients and communities. We'll provide the space to learn, grow and fulfill your potential as part of a supportive, global team.

Because great things happen together.

A culture of trust and respect

Our people tell us that managers and leaders build open and supportive environments which encourage self-expression, constructive challenge and productive collaboration. They value our trusting and supportive culture, the opportunities they are given to process, and our collective drive to make an impact. From trainees to partners, everyone is empowered to turn insights into transformative solutions for our clients.

A career with potential

Our people are supported to build extraordinary careers, working with world-shaping clients and learning from outstanding colleagues. We'll give you the space to grow, explore and fulfil your potential. Joining more than 1275 lawyers across 32 offices in Europe, the Middle East and North America, you'll work with high-profile clients globally on market-defining matters.

A real connection to community

Our people are proud to be a part of something bigger. We contribute thousands of hours to hundreds of pro bono matters, community engagement initiatives and philanthropic activities every year. By taking part in regular impactful fundraising and volunteering, you'll help us make a lasting difference to our planet and communities.
